Merry Christmas and Happy New Year

We break up today for the Christmas holidays and children will return to school on Wednesday 4 January. We look forward to seeing you all next year and wish everyone a very merry Christmas and a Peaceful New Year.

School Newspaper

The School Newspaper club have been working very hard this term to produce the first edition of the 'Syddall News' which has been written and produced entirely by the children from KS2. The Syddall News is available now for everyone to read on the school website under the 'News' section

FS, Y1 and Y2 Christmas Performance

A big thank you to all the parents, carers and family members who came to see our performance of A Wiggly Nativity. The children really enjoyed performing for you.
