

Michael Syddall Newsletter

Friday 27th June

A wonderful week of performances from our year 6 and year 5 children. They all demonstrated superb singing and acting skills. Thank you to everyone for all the support, from costumes to help learning lines and coming to watch the show!

NEWS

We've had a superb day this week with Dave from Skip2bfit. We've been working on assessing our fitness compared to where we started the year. It's fantastic to see the progress that our children have made with their fitness levels and their attitudes towards becoming the best version of themselves. Check out our Facebook to see what the children go up to.
